

Rehearsal Report

Monday 7/2/12

|-------------------------------------|--|
| Rehearsal Notes | Kind of a wonky rehearsal. Started at Steven's to try on costumes, then released actors to the barn. Maddy joined and got them started on lines. After loading the dimmer pack into the trailer, the rest of us joined. Unloaded the trailer, then began rehearsal. Maddy worked with Cami, Jason, and Alison. Steven worked with Maddie and Anthony. Not sure which scenes they covered inside, but outside, we covered Ivi. Jenny was sick, so she stayed home. Because everything was so scattered, we don't have much in the way of notes tonight. |
| Set | Yay second floor! |
| Props | Nothing new. |
| Costumes | I'll put it here for the heck of it: we need to acquire some knee pads for Maddie to rehearse in. Her knees are looking pretty sad. She sent me a picture last night. |
| Lighting | Nothing new, though I need to send you some files. |
| Sound/ Projection | Josh has work Tuesday 5p-11p, so we should try to do filming before 5. |
| Schedule | Tomorrow is a run then scenework. Actors are called 6:30-10. Wednesday is a day off from rehearsals, though we'll be at the park, bbqing corn. Thursday we have more scenework. |
| Miscellaneous | Question about the pink Paris dress: does it need to be pink? |
